

Introduction:

The impulse streaming kit is designed to operate using a single wired Ethernet/CAT5 connection and standard US power outlet.

For help completing any of the checklist items below please visit the Impulse Streaming Kit FAQ page and complete user manual:

<https://www.sencore.com/impulse-streaming-kit-setup-and-faq/>

Pre-Event Checklist:

The following tasks should be completed or known prior to the event

1. Power outlet and wired ethernet cable (internet access) are available at the tripod
2. The batteries for Camera, Bluetooth Microphone, and receiver are fully charged
3. The Youtube account credentials (username and password) are known
4. The Youtube account has been authorized for online streaming
5. Internet access and upload speed is available (4.5Mbps default upload required)
6. Kit has been assembled and wired per illustration below
7. Laptop or computer is available on same network as streaming kit
 - a. Laptop can use WiFi if available
 - b. Laptop can reach web-interface of 200E encoder and “ping” over network
8. Does the facility have 3.5mm audio from mixer or will Bluetooth mic be used?

Illustration of 200E backplate when fully wired:

